

Anger Management Requirements

- Participants must be on time. Anything past 10 minutes late is considered an absence.
- Participation must be consistent. Only one excused absence is allowed during the course of the program. More than two weeks of absences will result in automatic termination from the program unless a leave of absence has been approved in advance by the referral source and program in consultation with the probation officer.
- All fees are required before the start of each class. The evaluation fee is _____. Each class has a fee of _____. Payment should be in the form of cash or money order.
- Participation is required. This includes completing all assignments in session and at home. Lack of participation and completion of assigned assignments may result in an absence.
- Pay all required fees. Acknowledge that carrying a balance greater than $25 will result in an absence.
- Participants must complete the Anger Management program where the participant originally enrolled unless approval to change the Anger Management Program is obtained from the court or other referral source as well as the original program provider
- Participants agree to be drug- and alcohol free during all Anger Management classes and agree to random drug screens as required by probation.
- Participants must authorize the release of all information and acknowledging that Anger Management Programs do not limit confidentiality (if court ordered) and may release information to persons or organizations such as victims, victim liaisons, referring courts, law enforcement, Department staff and monitors, the Department's Probation Division, or the Board of Pardons and Paroles if applicable.
